Talk of Nominating the Colonel Comes From Woodruff and Barnes Woodruff for Direct Nominations a Short Time Ago, Says D. R. James, Jr.

The source of the statements which were printed yesterday asserting that the leaders of the regular faction in the Republican organization had made up their minds to nominate Col. Roosevelt for Governor at the Saratoga convention was William Barnes, Jr., the Albany Republican boss. In the last three days Mr. Barnes has taiked a great deal to the reporters, and while he has been careful to insist that he should not be quoted he has made no objection to the repetition indirectly of the views he holds on the present situation

Both Mr. Barnes and Mr. Woodruff give the impression to the newspaper men that Mr. Roosevelt has created such a condition of affairs in this State that the election next November will go against the Republicans.
